Burlington House is best known as the handsome building in Piccadilly, with its fine courtyard and galleries, where are held the Annual Exhibitions of the Royal Academy of Arts from the first week in May to the August Bank Holiday following. Many other learned societies are also housed under its roof. The original building was erected in 1785, and the present one completed in 1872.

To-morrow morning we hope to go to Barnetts Hotel Crown Street, Strand. Why don't any of you write? With love kisses from mother.
